TWELVE NATURALIZED

Out of Twenty-one Applicants—Seven Cases Continued by Judge Webb.

The superior court, with Judge James H. Webb on the bench, held a session in this city Tuesday for the purpose of final examinations for applicants for naturalization papers. Twelve of the twenty-one applicants received favorable action, seven cases were continued or rejected, and two failed to appear.

Those who succeeded were: Michael D. Leary, witnessed by J. J. Curran and George A. Grady; Solomon Haddad, by William A. and Joseph Haddad; Ernest Johnson, by Wilfred Carlson and Algot Johnson; Joseph M. Lussier, by J. Godfrey LaPalme and A. J. Martineau; Joseph Giracca, by Joseph Haddad and Wilfred St. Martin; Eugene J. Cloutier, by A. J. Martineau and Wilfred St. Martin; Zephirin Coutu, by A. J. Martineau and William

Ellis; Arthur A. Barrette, by Albert Coutu and W. St. Martin; Peter Marcoux, by A. J. Martineau and W. St. Martin; Hyman Chasen, by T. J. Kelley and James P. Mustard; Theodore Morissette, by A. J. Martineau and Joseph M. Berard; and Patrick J. Kelly, by John O'Neill and P. F. Sullivan.

Roderick Goudreau, an applicant, was told he did not require naturalization papers, as it was found that his stepfather, while he was still a minor, took out papers in St. Albans, Vt., thus making Mr. Goudreau a citizen of this country.

The following cases were continued: Charles Lombardo, John Orkisz, Frank Lombardo, while the cases of Ovilla A. Desette and Michael Giordano were continued for investigation as to deposition. The cases of Otto Schmidt and Michael Giordano were continued for non-appearance.

Court was adjourned at 3 o'clock until this morning at 10.30 o'clock in Putnam.

Suffrage Plans for Old School Week.

A number of local young women interested in woman suffrage have obtained permission from the general committee for the Old Home and School week celebration to have a float in the street parade during the celebration week. Plans are being made for the arrangement and decoration of the float. A number of people interested are in favor of a parade of the members of the recently formed Equal suffrage league and all women interested in the movement. Miss Abbie O'Connor, one of the prominent suffragists in the state, is taking the initiative in the matter.

OBITUARY.

Mrs. William Henry Smith.
 Eliza Annette Roberts, wife of William Henry Smith, died Tuesday morning at the home of her daughter, Mrs. James E. Ferguson, of Valley street, after a short illness. Cerebral hemorrhage was the cause of death.

The deceased was born Dec. 15, 1851, in Pawtucket, R. I., the daughter of William and Eliza (Rollinson) Roberts. Practically all of her life had been spent in this city with the exception of a few years in Ashford, Mr. and Mrs. Smith conducted the Park Central house on Valley street for upwards of 20 years, selling out the business in 1913 and moving to North Windham. Mrs. Smith was a woman of splendid character, held in high esteem by all who knew her.

There survive the deceased her husband, four daughters, Mrs. J. H. Hartford of Philadelphia, Mrs. W. H. Jones of Oakville, Mrs. Theodore E. Downing of Hartford and Mrs. James E. Ferguson; a sister, Mrs. Henrietta Hills, of this city, and a brother, William F. Roberts, of Westerly, R. I.

Loss of Appetite

Most Successfully Treated by Taking Hood's Sarsaparilla

Loss of appetite is accompanied by loss of vitality, which is serious. It is common in the spring because at this time the blood is impure and impoverished and fails to give the digestive organs what is absolutely necessary for the proper performance of their functions.

Hood's Sarsaparilla, the old reliable all-year-round medicine, is especially useful in the spring. Get it from your druggist today. By purifying and enriching the blood and giving vitality, vigor and tone, it is wonderfully successful in the treatment of loss of appetite and the other ailments prevalent at this time. It is not simply a spring medicine—it is the best spring medicine.

Hood's Sarsaparilla makes the rich red blood the digestive organs need.

PRO-GERMAN CLERGYMEN

BOLTED WEEKLY MEETING

Because Colleagues Discussed Inhumanity of Sinking of Lusitania.

Chicago, May 10.—Clergymen of pro-German sympathies bolted the weekly meeting of the Methodist Episcopal ministers of Chicago today when their colleagues refused to postpone discussion of a resolution condemning "the inhuman torpedoing and un-Christian sinking of the Lusitania."

Half a dozen pastors left the room after signing in vain to have the resolution tabled. The resolution was adopted.

The declaration also expressed "perfect confidence" in the "sane leadership" of President Wilson. Similar resolutions of confidence in the president were adopted by the Presbyterian Ministers' association. In the meeting of Baptist church leaders several speakers, including Shailer Mathews, dean of the Divinity school of the University of Chicago, urged prayers for the guidance of the president "in this, his hour of distress."

Tribute to Lincoln.
 At the Lincoln anniversary meeting held by the Pilgrims in London, the following tribute to the great American was paid by Viscount James Bryce in a letter to the society:
